ZICO Law in Cambodia

Representing ZICO Law in Cambodia, SokSiphana&associates is one of the most prominent legal firms in Cambodia providing a full spectrum of corporate and commercial services. The firm was founded in 1998 by Dr Sok Siphana, a highly accomplished lawyer and leading corporate figure who has served in many high profile capacities in the Cambodian government and other prominent organisations.

A unique value add we offer is our deep connection to the development of our country and economic trends, combined with a keen appreciation of regional and global issues. Our philosophy is simple - we are committed to help clients with effective, forward-thinking business strategy while mitigating possible risks. To maintain our firm's highest level of service and integrity, we constantly benchmark ourselves against the best international legal firms.

In July 2012, SokSiphana&associates officially became a member of ZICO Law, a network of leading local law firms in ASEAN. The firm has offices in the capital city Phnom Penh, and the popular tourist hub Siem Reap.

Why us ?

We advise on a full spectrum of corporate and commercial work to clients which range from leading international corporate entities to small growing local businesses in a wide range of industry sectors.
